

FERNANDO F. _____

Fernando is a seasoned professional who has spearheaded and coordinated both domestic and international law enforcement operations and investigations, resulting in the successful identification and rescue of numerous victims of human trafficking. His extensive experience includes active involvement in a myriad of rescue missions, collaborative efforts within and between agencies, and the orchestration of numerous undercover stings and take-downs targeting human traffickers and individuals involved in pedophilia.

In addition to his operational expertise, Fernando has made significant contributions to the field by training thousands of officials within the law enforcement and justice sectors. His dedication extends beyond the operational realm, as he has provided invaluable guidance to non-governmental organizations focused on supporting victims of trafficking. His impact has reached global proportions, with training sessions conducted in the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Colombia, and the United States.
